Exam Preparation:

- Students should have information regarding cumulative activities, and exam review sheets before the holidays. Please encourage your students to use some time over the break (if available) to organize notes, start on cumulative, or begin to review for exams.

After Christmas Break: Jan 8-12

- This is our final full week of the semester and an important time of learning. Students may be starting to work on cumulative activities (worth 30%) this week.
- Any incomplete term work (projects, tests and assignments) must be submitted by Fri, Jan 12th.

Final Week of Classes: Jan 15-18

- This is a critical week for students. Courses have cumulative activities (worth 30%) and there is important exam preparation happening in many classes as well. We expect that class time is given high priority. This means no extra homework, or unit tests during this week.
- Some co-curricular activities continue during lunch time, and after school as scheduled.

Exams and Study Days: Jan 19, 22-25

- To accommodate students who have more than 4 exams, exams will start on Fri, Jan 19th.
- Students are not required to be at school when they do not have an exam scheduled. If they do come in, they are expected to be studying quietly. Teachers may be available for some support.

Exam Blocks:

- Exams are 1.5 hrs for grade 9 and 10 (with 30 min extra if needed; max time = 2 hrs)
- Exams are 2 hours for grade 11 and 12 (with 30 min extra if needed; max time = 2.5 hrs)
- Students in ESL and those with an IEP (medical or educational accommodations) may be eligible for extra time. Please contact the ASP, ESL or guidance departments for details.
